

	EYFS	KS1	KS2
Social Justice and Equity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand that all people need to be treated fairly 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> what fairness means examples of what it can mean to be rich or poor in local and other contexts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> how fairness may not always mean equal treatment causes and effects of poverty and inequality (including gender inequalities) at local, national and global levels inequalities within and between societies and how these change
Identity and Diversity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand that differences are important 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> similarities and differences between peoples in local setting and also in wider contexts what contributes to self-identity and belonging 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> diversity of cultures and societies within and beyond own experience contributions of different cultures to our lives benefits and challenges of diversity nature and impact of prejudice, racism and sexism and ways to challenge these importance of language, beliefs and values in cultural identities
Sustainable Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand that we can provide for ourselves without hurting the planet 	Through the UN Sustainable Development Goals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> positive and negative impacts of people's actions (including own personal choices) on others and the environment how people can damage or improve the environment 	Through the UN Sustainable Development Goals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> people's dependencies on the environment basics of climate change (causes and effects) environmentally - responsible living and global inequalities in ecological footprints
Peace and Conflict	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand how to be a good friend 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> causes of disagreement and conflict at personal, classroom and household levels 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> some causes and effects of conflict at all levels from personal to global

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> some ways of avoiding, managing and resolving conflict 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> strategies for managing, resolving and preventing conflict, including 'win-win' solutions examples of conflicts past and present in own society and others importance of resolving conflict fairly
Human Rights	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand that we all have rights 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> rights in class and school the need to respect the rights of others basic human rights and how some people have these denied 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> reasons why some people have their rights denied those responsible for rights being met (e.g. teachers, local and national government) importance of citizens, societies and governments respecting and defending people's human rights current and historical human rights issues and movements in own country and elsewhere
Power and Governance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand that we can be trailblazers 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> how to take part in making and changing rules in own class / school uneven sharing of power and how some people are excluded from decision making 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> the need for rules in own school and wider society and how people can take part in making and changing them basics of how our own country and region is governed
Globalisation and Interdependence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand that our food comes from different people and places 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Similarities and differences between places in various parts of the world, including our own setting Links between local community and the wider world 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Global connections between peoples and countries (e.g. through trade and communications) How local actions affect the wider world